Deuteronomy 33:18
And to Zebulun he said: "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your departure, and Issachar, in your tents.

Isaiah 2:4
And he shall judge between the nations and reprove many peoples, and they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift the sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.
Mishna Tamid 7:4
The song the Levites sang in the Holy Temple. On the first day (ie:Sunday) they said “to the Lord is the earth and its fullness” (Psalms 24:1) the second day they said “great is the Lord and praised very much” (Psalms 48:2) on the third day they said “G-d stands in the assembly of judges”(Psalms 82:1) on the fourth day they said “Lord, a jealous G-d” (Psalms 94:1) on the fifth day they said “sing to the Lord, our strength” (Psalms 81:2) on the sixth day they said “the Lord rules He has donned majesty” (Psalms 93:1) on the Sabbath they said “a song of melody for the Sabbath day” (Psalms 92:1) a song for the future time, a world that is entirely Sabbath, and an eternal rest. (translation by Gideon Aronovich)

Ethics of The Fathers 2:16
He used to say: It is not incumbent upon you to complete the work; yet, you are not free to desist from it. If you have studied much Torah, a great reward will be given to you, for your Employer is trustworthy to reward you for your labor. And know that the reward of the righteous is in the time to come. (translation from moreshet.net)

Isaiah 60:3
And nations shall go by your light and kings by the brilliance of your shine

All English Translations from Judaica Press, available online at www.chabad.org